

Meeting Room Rental in Long Beach

ABOUT CCEJ

The California Conference for Equality and Justice (CCEJ) is an organization with a 60-year history of pursuing the mission to educate and empower youth and adults to lead change for equity and justice in our communities. Our vision is of a world where people live free of oppression and thrive.

At CCEJ, we lead people of all backgrounds in deep examinations of power and privilege at the personal and societal levels, inspiring them to build community across differences and work together to advance equity, inclusion and justice.

Our programs incorporate Restorative Justice practices to support youth and adults to increase their resiliency and ability to address identity-based conflict.
